1 – INTRODUCTION & WELCOME

Welcome to the University of Wisconsin-Madison and to the Central Eurasian Studies Summer Institute (CESSI)! We are excited for you to join us for what we expect will be a productive and fun summer.

In this handbook, we want to introduce you to the program, the university, and the city, and help you prepare for and make the most of your CESSI experience. For the most part, the information included here is of a general nature. We encourage you to open the links within to obtain more detailed information. Feel free to contact the CESSI staff with any questions.

The following members of the CESSI team will be available to help you throughout the summer:

*Kelly Iacobazzi, CESSI Program Coordinator, cessi@creeca.wisc.edu, 608-265-6298

*Uli Schamiloglu, CESSI Academic Director, uschamil@wisc.edu, 608-262-7141

*Felecia Lucht, Director, Wisconsin Intensive Summer Language Institutes (WISLI), felecia.lucht@wisc.edu, 608-263-6693

*Sarah Kutz, CREECA Events Coordinator, events@creeca.wisc.edu, 608-262-3379

2 – HOW TO LEARN A LANGUAGE

There is one important thing you should remember about all courses and learning situations, including an intensive language course: most learning is actually self-instruction. Of course, in class your instructor will be helping you develop new skills and cultivate competence in the language. However, what you do outside of class, on your own, will ultimately determine how much you get out of your time at CESSI.

Circumstances may prevent you from sticking to a consistent plan of study every day, but from the beginning you should set aside a significant part of your non-class day to self-study. Of course, this will involve completing your homework assignments, but if this is all you are doing, then the intensity and pace of CESSI will likely overtake you at some point, particularly at exam time. Remember that cramming is not effective in a language course. Your own background, ability, and experience with language will affect how well you take on the challenge of a CESSI course, but everyone can do it successfully.

For most people, the best plan of action is to spend every afternoon practicing what you learned in class that morning, and completing your homework. Following this plan – class in the morning, self-study/homework in the afternoon (1:00-5:00 pm, M-F) – will also leave you free to enjoy yourself at night, to discover Madison's great summer activities, to go to Summerfest in Milwaukee, or just relax. If you must work, try to schedule it so that you can at least spend some time in the afternoon working on that day's material. A large gap between class and study time does not reinforce things as well as a minimal gap.

Finally, perhaps the most important thing to remember when learning a language is that you must make mistakes. No one ever learned a language without getting things wrong, a lot. There were methods of language teaching in the past that punished errors severely, but those days are long gone. Today we know that communication can occur even when basic mistakes are present. It is inevitable that you will make mistakes, no matter how much you advance in a foreign language. As long as you are actively trying to learn from your mistakes, you will improve. The key is not to let your fear of sounding funny or messing things up keep you from practicing, or keep you from stepping out of your linguistic comfort zone.

3 – MANAGING STRESS DURING INTENSIVE COURSES

For most students studying at one of UW-Madison's intensive language programs, the summer flies by without any major obstacle. However, students can often feel overwhelmed by the amount of work and fast pace of intensive language courses. So how do you manage stress in such an environment?

First, you need to be rested and healthy in order to avoid the most obvious problem faced by students who struggle in intensive summer language courses, namely missing class. Remember that each day of CESSI equals a week during the academic year. Miss two or three days in a row due to illness and you can imagine how hard it is to catch up. Keep this in mind when planning your extra-curricular activities and other commitments.

Second, even if you make every class, there are times when you may just feel lost in class, just can't seem to figure out what the instructor is saying, and so forth. However, the solution is never to skip class just to take a break, no matter how appealing and easy that option may seem. It may be that your study habits should change, that you should work with a classmate in the afternoon, that you should visit your instructor's office hours more frequently, etc. Always start with your instructor for advice, but do this as early as possible. In fact, your instructor may approach you if s/he notices you struggling. If so, listen with an open mind. If you're still struggling, speak to the academic director or program coordinator, who are always available to help.

If you feel you would like to speak to a mental health professional, UW Campus has excellent resources which are free to all CESSI students. University Health Services is located at 333 East Campus Mall. The Mental Health office is on the 7th floor, and there is a free walk-in service between 9 and 4, M-F. You don't need to make an appointment, you can just turn up to talk to a professional about any issue that is causing you stress or anxiety. The service is completely confidential and no one will be notified of your visit. They also have a crisis helpline: 608-265-5600, option 9. For more information about University Health Services, including mental health resources, visit: <https://www.uhs.wisc.edu/>

4 – CO-CURRICULAR EVENTS

We strive to make CESSI an enjoyable community experience by creating opportunities for people to gather to meet, discuss, and learn from each other. To that end, we organize a series of events that complement the language courses. Events include the weekly Tuesday afternoon lecture series, Friday film showings, the WISLI Student Conference, and a variety of other events and celebrations throughout the summer. All students will receive an events schedule at the beginning of the program, although you are encouraged to check out the Center for Russia, East Europe, and Central Asia's website at <https://creeca.wisc.edu/events/> for additional events that may be of interest. For all events on campus, visit: <https://today.wisc.edu/>.

Interested CESSI students also have the opportunity to participate in an informal language and cultural exchange with visiting students from Kazakhstan, known as NUUW Connections (pronounced "new") and known in previous summers as WisKaz or WisKaz-BRIDGE). Contact Laura Weigel (leweigel@wisc.edu) for more information, or visit <https://russianflagship.wisc.edu/nuuw>.

5 – EXTRA-CURRICULAR EVENTS

Madison is a fantastic city with tons of things to do and see during the summer. The best source for up-to-date weekly information about concerts, festivals, movies, etc. is the free Isthmus (online calendar at: <http://isthmus.com/all-events>), available at many locations around campus, including Memorial Union. Milwaukee is home to Summerfest (<http://www.summerfest.com/>), a huge 11-day gathering of music, food, and other events just an hour by car from Madison. The Wisconsin Union (<http://www.union.wisc.edu/>) also hosts music and shows on the famous Memorial Union Terrace. Finally, don't leave Madison without checking out the Dane County Farmers' Market, the largest producers-only farmers' market in the US! The market is held every Saturday morning on Capitol Square. Be sure to get there early, though, as it gets crowded! <http://dcfm.org/>

6 – ATTENDANCE AND OTHER POLICIES

The people with primary responsibility for your personal CESSI experience are you and your instructors. Instructors control how classes run and have complete autonomy to determine lesson plans, class activities, syllabi, grading, and the like. At the same time, they also have the responsibility to meet students' needs, to attend to the diversity of students present in class, and to engage students each according to his/her background. The academic director primarily works with instructors to ensure and enable an efficient and enjoyable CESSI experience for everyone. Of course, the director and program coordinator also work with students regarding administrative and academic concerns. In general, our mutual expectations might look something like this:

What You Should Expect from Us

- 1) Inspiration and encouragement to learn your chosen language
- 2) Well-prepared lessons and class activities
- 3) Respect and empathy for the difficulties of learning a language
- 4) Worthwhile co-curricular films and lectures, as well as social events
- 5) Openness and promptness in dealing with student problems and concerns

What We Expect of You

- 1) Daily attendance in class
- 2) Respect and courtesy toward your instructors and classmates
- 3) Promptness in dealing with administrative matters (registration, payment, etc.)
- 4) Openness to participating in CESSI events

Attendance at CESSI

As previously mentioned, CESSI students are expected to attend class every day due to the intensive nature of the program. Students with extenuating circumstances must discuss the situation with the instructor and with CESSI staff. Absences, other than illness, will be worked out on a case-by-case basis.

Vacation is not a valid excuse for a student to have an extended absence. If a student misses class, it is his/her responsibility to make up the work and to keep up with the other students in the class.

Classes start at 8:30AM and go until 1:00PM (with either one half hour break or three ten minute). CESSI's policies regarding tardiness and absence are as follows:

Tardiness:

Up to 30 minutes late (habitual tardiness of less than 30 minutes may also be considered a violation)

1st time = warning

2nd time = grade deduction

3rd time = referred to CESSI staff/possible additional grade deduction

Absence

Tardiness of over 30 minutes late will be considered an absence

1st unexcused absence = warning + grade deduction

2nd unexcused absence = referred to CESSI staff + grade deduction

Excused and unexcused absences cannot equal more than 2 per semester. Once a student has a 3rd absence, he or she must speak with either the academic director or program coordinator.

NOTE 1: An unexcused absence is any absence with no prior approval from the instructor. Unanticipated medical/other emergencies may require additional documentation and approval from CESSI administration in order to be considered "excused."

NOTE 2: The tardiness and absence policy of your instructor may be more strict than the policy listed above and will supersede the CESSI policies. Please refer to the syllabus of your class for any adjustments to the above policies.

*Please note that this year, July 4 lands on a Tuesday. As July 4 is a legal holiday, the university will be closed and no classes will be held. Classes will still be held on July 3 and July 5.*

Tuesday Lecture Series & Friday Film Series

In addition to classes, students are expected to attend the weekly CESSI lecture series, as it is an integral part of the CESSI experience. The lectures will take place on Tuesdays, 4:00-5:30 pm, in Humanities 1651. The lectures start during the second week of CESSI (Tuesday, June 27). Lectures will be on a variety of topics related to Central Asia, and will be given by both local speakers and visiting lecturers.

On Wednesdays from 12:00-1:00 pm, classes will be held at either the Terrace or the Memorial Union dining area, depending on weather. Over lunch, students and instructors will have a chance to speak informally in their target language while enjoying some of the best lakeside views in Madison!

CESSI also has a weekly "Dastarkhan" celebration and film series on Fridays, 10:00 am-1:00 pm (meaning Friday classes are shorter, from 8:30 - 10:00 only). Film showings will take place in 254 Van Hise. Unfortunately, food and drink are not permitted in the room so Dastarkhan will take place in the LSS common area.

Student Code of Conduct

The student Academic Misconduct Policy & Procedures for the University of Wisconsin is available at: <http://www.students.wisc.edu/doso/academic-integrity/>

This document outlines the rules and regulations regarding your student rights and responsibilities while a student at the University of Wisconsin-Madison. It states that academic misconduct is an act in which a student:

- Seeks to claim credit for the work or efforts of another without authorization or citation
- Uses unauthorized materials or fabricated data in any academic exercise
- Forges or falsifies academic documents or records
- Intentionally impedes or damages the academic work of others
- Engages in conduct aimed at making false representation of a student's academic performance
- Assists other students in any of these acts.

Special Note on Academic and Non-Academic Misconduct

Cheating and/or plagiarism are not tolerated at CESSI and UW-Madison. Reports of academic misconduct can result in a variety of penalties. Similarly, non-academic misconduct, including disruptive or threatening behavior towards other students, instructors, or staff, will not be tolerated and may result in sanctions or dismissal. If you have any questions about what constitutes such misconduct in language courses, please consult with your instructor, the academic director, or read through the website of the Dean of Students Office: <http://www.students.wisc.edu/doso/>

Special Note on Sexual Harassment

CESSI and the University of Wisconsin-Madison take any sexual harassment situation very seriously. If you have any issues that arise during your appointment at CESSI, please come to Kelly Iacobazzi or Uli Schamiloglu to discuss the situation. If you are uncomfortable contacting any of us, please feel free to go directly to Equity & Diversity Resource Center (179A Bascom Hall, 608-263-2378). More information: <https://oed.wisc.edu/sexual-harassment-information.htm>

McBurney Disability Resource Center

The McBurney Center is available for all students at the University of Wisconsin. If you have a disability and receive accommodations such as extra testing time, notetaking, or adaptive technology, and would like accommodations for the summer term, please register as soon as possible with the McBurney Center through their website at: www.mcburney.wisc.edu. A full range of McBurney's services can be found on their website.

If you suspect you have a disability but do not have a diagnosis or have not received accommodations in the past, please contact the McBurney Center.

7 – COMPUTING AT UW-MADISON

UW-ID Card (Wiscard)

You will want to pick up your University of Wisconsin Photo ID soon after coming to Madison. This ID will get you into the campus libraries, help you set up your Net ID, computer labs, recreational facilities, parking facilities, allow you to purchase beer at the Memorial Union (if you are of legal drinking age), and get your FREE bus pass. If you already have a Wiscard, please bring it with you to Madison, or you will have to pay a replacement fee. You can get your photo UW-ID at Union South, 1308 W. Dayton Street, Room 149, 8:00-4:30 PM, Monday – Friday.

More information: <http://www.wiscard.wisc.edu/get-your-wiscard.html>

NetID

If you are new to CESSI, you will need to Activate your NetID in order to gain access to the UW-Madison online system.

To activate your NetID, please visit <https://www.mynetid.wisc.edu/activate>. You will need the 10-digit number from your Wiscard ID and your date of birth. Please follow the instructions and activate your NetID from this page.

If you have a NetID from past years at CESSI but are unable to log onto the system, you may need to Modify your NetID.

To modify your NetID, go to www.wisc.edu. On the MyUW drop down at the top of the page, click MyUW HOME. Click on the link “Modify your account” that is to the right of the NetID Login title and enter your NetID and password to log in. Please follow the instructions on the next page to re-activate all your services.

If you have forgotten the password for your NetID login, please contact the DoIT Help Desk at (608) 264-4357.

My UW Madison

The My UW-Madison portal provides applicants, students, faculty, staff, advisors and instructors with a suite of integrated information resources that are tailored to their roles and interests. The portal is highly personalized and can be customized to suit the user’s individual needs. You will need to use your NetID and password to login at <http://www.wisc.edu/>. Please login to My UW and take a look at all the features. You may set up a calendar, access links to academic resources, see your final grades, and many other options. Please make sure to write down your NetID and your password. If you have forgotten your NetID and password, please call the DoIT help desk at 608-264-4357. They will be able to reset your password and supply your NetID.

For those of you returning, you can test your NetID and password at:

<https://www.mynetid.wisc.edu/activate>

Computer Access

If you have brought your own laptop, you may connect to the internet via the UW-Madison wireless connection. To connect to wi-fi:

1. Turn on wireless access on your computer or mobile device and select the UWNet option.
2. Enter your University of Wisconsin Net ID and password.
3. Once this information has been entered, you will not need to re-authenticate when connected to UWNet for the duration of the summer.

Computer labs:

If you do not have a laptop, you can use one of the many computer labs on campus. Hours vary during the summer. The only lab that has specific language fonts (if not using proprietary software) is the one in Van Hise. Below is a short list of available computer labs. For a complete listing, visit:

<https://it.wisc.edu/services/computer-labs-infolabs/>

1. Van Hise InfoLab, 608-262-4575, 464 Van Hise, hours vary. This computer lab has fonts set up on the computers. If you need a font that is not currently available in this lab, contact CESSI staff (if the font is not private software) who will make every effort to obtain the font.
<http://lss.wisc.edu/facilities/infolab/index.html>
2. Memorial Library Infolab, 608-265-3017, 140 Memorial Library (on Library Mall), hours vary.
<https://www.library.wisc.edu/memorial/spaces/service-desks/infolab-doit-140/>
3. College Library, 608-263-9889, 2250 College Library, 600 N. Park St., hours vary.
<https://www.library.wisc.edu/college/services-at-college/computer-lab/>

Learning Support Services (LSS)

The staff of LSS serves students, faculty, and staff in the UW-Madison College of Letters & Science by promoting and supporting the thoughtful use of technology for teaching and learning.

LSS is located in Van Hise Hall. The main office is in room 279 and is open Monday-Friday from 8:00 am to 12:00 pm, and from 1:00 pm to 4:00 pm. <http://lss.wisc.edu/>

Consulting: The LSS staff is available to consult on projects using audio, video, and other instructional technology.

Learning Lab: The L&S Learning Lab, in 215 Van Hise, provides an extensive media library, audio and video playback equipment, computers, and drop-in study space.

InfoLab: The LSS Infolab, located in 464 Van Hise Hall, is open to all UW students needing to work with faculty-assigned courseware, word processing, and Internet services. In addition to 44 Dual boot Macintosh computers (Mac OS X and Windows 7) available in the lab, another 60 Macbook Pros (also dual boot) are available for three-day checkout.

Audiovisual materials for over 100 foreign languages are available in the Media Library. This collection includes DVDs, videocassettes, CDs, and cassettes. The catalog lists available holdings;
<http://lss.wisc.edu/node/151>

8 – CAMPUS AND CITY INFORMATION

Parking

It is costly to park on campus. If you are choosing to do this, you must contact the Transportation Office on campus. A good alternative to driving is biking or using your FREE bus pass! Information:

<http://transportation.wisc.edu>

Bus Pass

Once you have your photo ID, you can pick up your free bus pass (and bus map) at the Student Print offices on the third floor of the Student Services Tower in 333 East Campus Mall.

More information: <https://www.asm.wisc.edu/resources/buspass/>

Madison bus info/maps: <http://mymetrobus.com/>

** Note: Madison Metro also runs buses (routes 80, 81, 82) on and near campus that are free. No pass or money is needed for these routes.

Recreational Facilities

With your UW ID, you have complementary use of the UW recreational facilities. You must bring your UW ID every time you use the facilities. For more information on the offerings, please check out their website: <http://www.recsports.wisc.edu/>

Campus & Visitor Information

On your first day, CESSI will give you maps and visitor guides. If you would like to visit the University Campus Visitor's Center, there are two convenient locations on campus: Campus and Community Information Welcome Desk at Union South and the Welcome Center at 21 N. Park Street. Hours at both locations vary.

Information: <http://info.wisc.edu/>

Campus Map: <http://www.map.wisc.edu/>

Campus Tours

A 100-minute campus walking tour is offered for visitors at various times on weekdays and weekends. These tours leave from Union South, 1308 W. Dayton Street. Reservations are recommended.

Information: <http://info.wisc.edu/>

Memorial Union/Union South

The Wisconsin Memorial Union is a fantastic place to get information and/or just to hang out. If you like to enjoy a snack or beverage while watching the sunset, listen to live music, watch free movies, or if you wish to hang out with your fellow students and speak in the target language, it is the perfect place. Your UW photo ID is needed to purchase alcoholic drinks from the Union. See the link below for more activities and events surrounding the Union.

Website: <https://www.union.wisc.edu/index.htm>

9 – SAFE LEARNING AND LIVING ENVIRONMENTS

All faculty, staff, and students at the University of Wisconsin-Madison share the responsibility to create safe learning environments and a positive campus climate. Below is information regarding the expectations and responsibilities of CESSI and UW-Madison students, faculty, and staff.

Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act

The Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act, (20 USC § 1092 (f)), also known as the Clery Act, is a federal law that requires institutions of higher education to have in place certain security and safety policies, and to disclose certain crime statistics. The Clery Act also identifies certain staff, faculty, and students as “Campus Security Authorities” and requires that they forward statistical reports of crimes to designated offices on campus. The Clery Act was amended in 2013 to expand the list of crimes tracked and to broaden the rights and resources to which victims of sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking are entitled. Information about UW-Madison’s Clery program, including resources for and about our Campus Security Authorities, selected Clery policies, and reporting, rights, and resource information for victims of sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking is available online uwpd.wisc.edu/crime-data/clery-act/. If you have questions, contact the Clery Director at UWPD at (608) 286-9871 or (608) 250-9638.

Reporting

UW-Madison encourages all members of the Badger community who are victims of crime, including sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking to file a police report immediately with the University of Wisconsin - Madison Police Department or the City of Madison Police Department.

Contacting a “Campus Security Authority” is not the same as filing a report with the UWPD or the Madison Police Department.

To contact the UWPD Dial: 9-1-1 on campus or the non-emergency number; (608) 264-2677 (4-COPS) for reporting crimes that occur on campus. You may also visit the UWPD’s offices located at 1429 Monroe Street, Madison, Wisconsin 53711. UWPD is open 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

To contact the City of Madison Police Department (MPD): Dial 9-1-1 off campus or their non-emergency number: (608) 266-4316 to report crimes that occur off campus. You may also visit MPD’s offices at 211 South Carroll Street, Madison, Wisconsin 53709. MPD is open 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

Sexual Harassment Information

When sexual harassment occurs, it degrades the quality of work and education at UW-Madison. Sexual harassment violates the law and university policy, and can damage personal and professional relationships, cause career or economic disadvantage, and expose the university to legal liabilities, a loss of federal research funds and other financial consequences. Each of us has a duty not to harass others and to act responsibly when confronted by the issue of sexual harassment. We have a collective responsibility to do so, thereby promoting an environment that better supports excellence in teaching, research, and service. Principal investigators, supervisors, managers, department chairs, directors, and deans have additional responsibilities: individuals in positions of authority must take reasonable measures to prevent sexual harassment and take immediate and appropriate action when they learn of allegations of sexual harassment. UW-Madison will take prompt and appropriate action whenever it learns that sexual harassment has occurred. You are encouraged to report incidents or concerns to your instructor or CESSI administrative staff. Sexual harassment (and other prohibited harassment or discrimination) may also be reported to the Office for Equity & Diversity, or to campus administrative offices identified on their website. You may contact any resource for information and assistance: oed.wisc.edu/sexual-harassment-information
