

Lectures & Co-curriculars from CESSI 2019 & 2020

- Lecture Titles from 2020:
 - An Uzbek Patron and the Limits of Eurasian Power
 - Language Ideologies and Identities of Multilingual Youth in Kazakhstan and Uzbekistan
 - Central Eurasian Textiles from the Helen Louise Allen Textile Collection – A Virtual Tour
 - When is Home? Exploring Kazakhstani Koreans’ Notions of Place and Homeland
 - Moral Futures: Halal Businesses in Central Asia
- Lecture Titles from 2019:
 - China’s Policies Of Transforming Uyghurs: Labor Transfer, Language Change, “Re-education” Camps
 - Fieldwork Tips For Research In Central Asia: Safety And Ethics
 - Reproductive Health Improvements In Central Asia: How Much And For Whom?
 - Elite Formation In Soviet Kazakhstan: A Prosopographical Analysis
 - The Rise And Fall Of Khoqand, 1709–1876
- Co-curricular Titles from 2020:
 - An Informal Conversation about Uzbek Literature
 - CESSI Alumni Research Panel
 - A Casual Lesson on the History and Cultural Background of Traditional Kazakh Food
 - A Tajik Sing-a-Long and Traditional Pamiri Dance Performance and Tutorial
- Co-Curricular Titles from 2019:
 - Central Asian Carpet Workshop
 - Central Eurasian Dance Workshop
 - My Dear Kyrgyzstan (short film)
 - Joint Student Conference with other Wisconsin Intensive Summer Language Institute students

Thank you for attending the CESSI Alumni Virtual Panel!
Questions? Contact cessi@creeca.wisc.edu or visit us at cessi.wisc.edu